As a ministry of Central Baptist Church Brantford, Central Baptist Academy is owned, operated, and run by Central Baptist Church Brantford.

The membership of Central Baptist Church Brantford is responsible for appointing men to give leadership to the operation of the church and all of its programmes. The Deacons appoint several members of the church to form the Central Baptist Academy Committee (CBAC) which is like a Board of Education.

While Central Baptist Academy considers itself to be a Christian school, it is identified by the Ministry of Education and Training (MOET) as a private school in Ontario. It receives no government funding.

Association of Christian Schools International

CBA is a member of the Association of Christian Schools, International (ASCI). This organization provides many educational and financial benefits to its member schools.

Ontario Ministry of Education and Training

Central Baptist Academy is officially registered with the Ontario MOET.
